

Meeting community needs in Hawaii. More than 11,000 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 26 national service projects across Hawaii. Serving with national and community nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and local agencies, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, conduct neighborhood patrols, organize local homeland security efforts, respond to disasters, and recruit and manage volunteers. This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service will provide more than $3,700,000 to support Hawaii communities through three major programs:

Hawaii State Commission on National and Community Service

Stacy Higa, Chair
Robert Crowell, Vice Chair
Dennis Dunn
MaBel Fujiuchi
Pat Hamamoto
Scott Morishige
Lee Rombaoa
Ralph Stueber
Mike Kenefick

Senior Corps: More than 3,600 seniors in Hawaii contribute their time and talents in one of three programs: Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 900 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 600 other seniors live independently in their homes; and RSVP volunteers, who work with more than 460 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs, including safety patrols with local police departments, environmental projects, tutoring and mentoring, and responding to natural disasters.

AmeriCorps: This year, more than 270 individuals are serving in Hawaii communities as AmeriCorps members. In return, the members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. To date, more than 900 Hawaii residents have qualified for education awards totaling more than $3,200,000. Two-thirds of AmeriCorps grants are made by the Hawaii State Commission on National and Community Service. National nonprofits, such as the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and the U.S. Veterans Initiative, make other assignments. Other members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

Learn and Serve America: Learn and Serve America provides schools, colleges, and community organizations with grants for service-learning. These grants help make it possible for more than 7,700 Hawaii students to meet community needs while improving their civic and academic skills and learning the habits of good citizenship.

Through the President's Student Service Challenge, students in kindergarten through college receive presidential recognition for their outstanding community service. Students who serve 100 hours or more are eligible for a President's Student Service Award. Since 1999, more than 201 Hawaii students have received this award. In the President's Student Service Scholarship program, two students from each high school may receive a $1,000 college scholarship for outstanding service to the community. Since 1997, more than 90 Hawaii students have received these scholarships.

The National Service-Learning Leader Schools program recognizes middle and high schools for their excellence in service-learning. Waiakea High School in Hilo, Punahou School, President George Washington Middle School, Sacred Hearts Academy, and the Moanalua Middle School in Honolulu, Olomana School in Kailua, and Konawaena High School in Kealahou have been recognized as Leader Schools.
